Insurance

If you are a RFU affiliated rugby team you will automatically be covered to play at Hartpury Sevens 2019 through your club's insurance.

All non-affiliated teams are now covered as they are pre-approved by the RFU to be covered by the RFU's Accidental Death and Permanent Total Disability Insurance, provided the match or tournament is played in accordance with the RFU Rules and Regulations and the IRB Laws of the Game.

If you are an overseas team or player you will need to provide confirmation of approval from your national federation in order to participate at the Festival.

Refunds

Unfortunately we cannot refund paid entry fees if your team is unable to attend the competition.

Kit

All teams are responsible for wearing matching kit with clearly displayed numbers.

In the event of a colour clash, the team listed second on the competition schedule will be required to change kit or wear bibs.

Refreshments

Refreshments are available on-site, close to tournament pitches.

Changing Facility

Sufficient changing rooms are available on-site close to competition pitches. As there are a number of teams sharing facilities, it is the responsibility of each squad to remove all belongings after vacating. Hartpury College and 7 Bamboos Rugby does not accept any responsibility for theft, loss or damage to any property left inside.

First Aid

St. John's ambulance will provide First Aid support on the day. They will be located near to pitchside.

Parking

Parking for teams is available free of charge on site. Parking locations will be sign-posted.

Secure Trading 24/Sevens Series

Hartpury Sevens is a local qualifier of the Secure Trading 24/Sevens Series. This means the Cup winners of today's men's and women's competition will qualify for the regional finals in July. Please refer to the official series rules for more information and eligibility rules.
